

Wilson
7-1-31

INDEX TO VOLUME IX.

- Aesculapius*, temple of, the scite of, in the Epidaurian ruins, 36.
Agamemnon, tomb of, has the largest hewn stone known over its entrance, 36.
Aganippe and Hippocrene, fountains of, discovered, 41.
Agave, a new species of, described, 140.
Albyn's Anthology. See Scotch vocal poetry.
America. See United States.
American, the South, a metrical tale, 504—Indian music, 505—Caracas, id.—La Guayra, 507—architecture, id.—bamboo-huts, 509—Indian beverage, 510—River Magdalena, 511—Carthagera, id.—mona, or ring-tailed monkey, how caught, 512—general observations about South America, 513.
Arabs, mode of living and extraordinary longevity of, 223—schools among, 325—their tribes, 329.
Arithmetic, why not have its own method of demonstration, as well as Algebra and Geometry? 448.
Bennett's new theory of the tides built upon false principles, 234.
Bigelow, Dr.'s, inaugural address, 172.
—— on the use of clavus or ergot in rye, 186.
Blakeley, Captain Johnston, biography of, 208—birth, id.—education, 209—entry into the naval service, id.—amiable character of, 211—captures the Reindeer, id.—loss of, 212.
Blanc, the Abbe le's preservation of an essay, by an obscure author, from which Dr. Franklin took his 'Conversation of the Ephemerae', 392.
Bonaparte, anecdotes of, 227-31.
Brazil, travels in, 487—manners at Pernambuco, 238—mummery of religion, 489—female character, 490—scandalous system of taxation, 492—manufactures and schools, id.—no press, 493—capiro plant and carapato, or tick, 493—bad water, 494—mosquitos, 495—ignorance of the people, id.—itinerant preaching, 496—bad administration of justice, id.—curious instance of Brazilian justice, 498—the aborigines, id.—rapidity of vegetation, 498—cow-herds, id.—superstition, 499—curious play of intrudo, 501—Brazilian planters, 503.
Brewster, Dr. on the descent of the fluid which lubricates the cornea, 197.
Brothers, Richard, biography of, 253.
Buckminster, Sermons of, review of, 484.
Burchard's travels in south Africa, 189—his drawings and collections, 196.
Byron, Lord's, third canto of Childe Harold, 173—Darkness, 175.
Campbell, Mr., a collector of Scotch vocal poetry, 167.
—— a Mariner's account of the Sandwich Islands, 188.
Cause and effect, Hume's doctrine of, erroneous, 8-12—common notion of, corroborated, 13, 14.
Canning, right hon. George, M. P., biography of, 254.
Caracas, description of, 505.
Carnot, character of, 225.
Carolina, North and South, schools and colleges in, 289-300.
Cartwright, Edmund, D. D. biography of, 255.

Index.

- Christophe*, elevation to the presidentship of Hayti, 405—conduct in that capacity, and elevation to the monarchy, 405.
- Claims* of Godfrey and Hadley to the invention of the reflecting quadrant, discussed, 281.
- Clarke, Dr.'s, Travels*, 32—indignation at British taste, in despoiling the temple of Minerva, id.—censure of Lord Elgin, 33—description of Phidias' famous horse's head, id.—of the sculpture in the Parthenon, 34—of Corinth, 37—attempt to ascertain the scite of the Isthmean town, the temple of Neptune, the stadium, and the theatre, id.—description of Hellas, 37—visit to Marathon, 39—to Plataea, Leuctra, and Thespia, 41—to Chæronea, Orchomenus, Delphi, Parnassus, and Thermopylæ, 42—to Thessaly, 43—to Larissa, Olympus, Ossa, and Pelion, 44—to Therma, 45—character of his style, 47.
- experiments with Newman's blow-pipe, 194—establishes the metallic nature of barytes, of strontion, and perhaps of silex, 195—reduces meteoric stones to iron, 196—illiberality respecting the invention of the compound blow-pipe, 195.
- Clavus* or ergot in rye, diagnostics and effects of, 186.
- Cleveland's Mineralogy*, character of, 301—arrangement, 302—4—observations on Hany's system, id.—objections to this plan, 308—mistakes, 309—introduction to the study of geology, 312—remarks on the geology of the United States, 314.
- Clegg, Mr.'s* improvements in gas apparatus, 197.
- Columbus*, original letter of, respecting his first voyage, 513—authenticated, id. et seq.
- Congo*, identical with the Niger, 335.
- Connecticut*, colleges in, 293.
- Conversations on Political Economy*, character of the work, 60—extracts from, respecting the invention of machinery, 60—1.
- Corinth*, present condition of, 37.
- Correspondent*, notice of, 439.
- Curran's Plate Warmer*, a poem, 73—its object problematical, id.
- Danger* of the smallest deviation from truth illustrated, 61—73.
- Davy, Sir H.'s* new views respecting flame, 196—safety-lamp, id. note.
- Mr. John's experiments upon sea-water, 207.
- Rev. William, biography of, 255.
- Day's Course of Mathematics*, general character of, compared with the systems of Webber, Hutton, Wood, and Vince, 441—not a mere compilation, 444—Euler and Lacroix his models in illustration, id.—advantages of their diffuse method, 445—carried somewhat too far by our author, 446—leading excellence of the work, 447—deficient in wanting arithmetic, 448—definition of quantity objectionable, 449—also his assignment of fluxions to the higher branches of Algebra, 452—argument against scientific studies, 453—definition of Algebra not explanatory enough, 454—nor his account of the positive and negative signs, 455—definition of equation not so precise as Mr. Stewart's, 456—that of ratio, in one sense, implies a solecism, 458—his Variation supplies an important chasm, id.—also his doctrine of infinites, 459—definition of Logarithms not distinctive enough, 462—on departure and difference of longitude, 465.
- Delaware*, schools in, 289.
- Derby* (in Eng.) Infirmary in, how ventilated, 207.
- Dialogue*, its excellencies, as a method of teaching science, 60.
- Dictionary*, biographical, of living authors, character of, 253.
- Digits*, Arabic, conjectures on the original formation of, 165.

Index.

Directory, the French, character of, by Carnot, 224.

District of Maine, colleges in, 296.

Dolomieu, notice of the life and writings of, 191—birth, id.—mineralogical travels, 192—persecuted in the Revolution, id.—expedition to Egypt, 193—composed his Mineralogical Species in prison, id.—death, 194.

Dwight, Dr. Timothy, influence of, 265—birth, id.—education, 266—graduation at Yale College, id.—tutorship in that seminary, 267—address to the students in July 1776, 269—marriage and entrance into the army, 270—residence at Northampton, and appointment to the general court of Massachusetts, 271—his Conquest of Canaan, id.—Greenfield Hill, 272—residence at Greenfield Hill, 273—occasional discourses, id.—essays under the title of The Friend, 274—his academy, id.—appointment to the presidentship of Yale College, 275—arduousness of his duties as president and professor of divinity, 276—History of New England and New York, id.—his character as a man of talents, 277—as a preacher, 278—as an instructor, 279—as a companion, 280—death, and titles, 281.

Earth, how affected by the process of heavy bodies to and from the equator, 400.

Elgin, Lord, Dr. Clarke's censure of, 33.

Ely, Sermons of, reverend, 486.

Ergot. See Clavus and Bigelow.

Faxar, M. Pelacio's account of the alstenia teiformis, or tea of Bogota, 191.
— of the river Mela, 198.

Fifteen Days in London, a work calculated to do good, 131—written with the true spirit of travelling logic, 132—ingenuity of its attacks upon English manners, id.—instances, extracts relating to side-walks, 132—3—to insurances, 133—4—to English coffee-houses, 136—7—unsociability, 138—displays the true characteristics of Frenchmen, 138—instances, gravity on a caricature, 139—jocularly on a coffin, id.—general character of, 140.

France, opinion of Travels in, 467—Emperor Alexander, King of Prussia, Count Platoff, &c. 469—Physicians in the Russian Army, 469—Duke of Wellington, 470—manners and peculiarities of the people, 471—Contrast between France and Flanders, 273—Additional peculiarities of the French, 478.

Franklin, Dr. first collection of his writings, electrical letters, 354—fourth edition, id.—second collection, political writings, 355—third collection, life and essays, 357—first edition of his complete works, in London, id.—a similar edition, in Philad., 358—manifold instances of the editor's ignorance, carelessness, and disingenuity, 358, 371—very extraordinary delay in editing his MS. works, 371—unsatisfactorily explained by his grandson Wm. Temple Franklin, 372—Private Correspondence, character of, 373—parallel between him and Lord Bacon, 374—why the fame of such men is constantly increasing, 375—on domestic architecture, 377—on exercise, id.—on moral algebra, 378—on a project of a new American coin, id.—on newspaper editing, id.—on book-selling arts, 379—on double spectacles, id.—on hearing, 380—conclusive argument against privateering, 381—on steam boats, 382—on the abolition of slavery, id.—his creed, 383—former infidelity, 384, note—assiduity in defence of America, 385—Prussian edict, reception of, id.—affair with Lord Hillsborough, 387—with the Duke of Grafton, 388—his masterly conduct during the negotiations for peace, 389—Weems' edition of his life and essays reprobated, id.—a good collection of his works

Index.

- a desideratum, 391—the morals of chess, parable against persecution, and speech of an Ephemeris, not original, 392, 394.
- Franklin, Mr. William Temple, defence of his delay in publishing his grandfather's MS. 358—unsatisfactorily explained, 172—mysterious conduct in the business, 372—deficiency in care and judgment, 372-3.
- Gazometres, new mode of suspending, described, 395.
- Georgia, schools and colleges in, 289-301.
- Gifford, William, biography of, 256.
- Greathead, Henry, biography of, 257.
- God, his existence and attributes incapable of proof by Hume's doctrine of cause and effect, 23—but not so from the common doctrine, 24.
- Gorham, Dr.'s, inaugural address, 172.
- Greece, the scenery of, peculiarly calculated to inspire sublime poetry, 38—doubted, id.
- Greeks of distinction, the curious social customs of, at meals, 41.
- Guayra, La, description of, 508.
- Hamet, Sidi, veracity of examined, 333—story confirmed, 336, note; 337, note; 339, and the note; 344, note—journeyings of in Africa, 336 et seq.
- Hare, Robert, original inventor of the compound blow-pipe, 195.
 — new mode of suspending gasometers, 395.
- Hauy's system of mineralogy, professor Cleaveland's remarks on, 304.
- Hayti, importance of to the United States, 403—the island aboriginally so called, 404—the revolution of in 1802-3, id.—subsequent changes in, 405—education in, id.—agriculture and commerce, id.—capital and places of resort, 406—Sans Souci, the king's palace, 408—his person and character, id.—L'Eclair and markets, 408—manners of the natives, id.—interior little known, id.
- Hederic, quoted, 445, note.
- Hellas, description of, 37.
- Hershell, William, LL. D. F. R. S. biography of, 257.
- Hoffman's course of legal study, character of, 262.
- Hume's division of philosophy into the active and the speculative, 6—his own philosophy of the latter sort entirely, 7—his reasoning concerning cause and effect, gives rise to Mr. Ogilvie's definition of human knowledge, 8—inconclusive, 9—proves too much, 10—leads to absurdity, 11—spirit of his sceptical philosophy, 11-12-28—his reference of our conclusions from experience to habit erroneous and inconceivable, 15-17.
- Japan, account of, 206.
- Java, account of, 206.
- Jenner, Dr. Edward, pamphlets relative to the life of, 48—his birth and parentage, id.—studies under Hunter, id.—anecdote concerning, which brought him into notice, 49—refuses the offer of a place in India, id.—discovers the properties of the cow-pox, id.—reprint of his own account of the discovery, 49-52—medal presented to him by the Medical Society of London, 56—his observations on the cuckoo, id.—unambitious character of, 56—his gratuitous inoculation of the poor, in a house to which he gave the name of the Temple of Vaccinna, 57-8—his generosity, 58—a great, as well as a good man, 59.
- Jewitt, John R.'s narrative characterized, 141—birth, id.—capture by the Nootkians, 142—saves a ship-mate, Thompson, 143—character, 145—marriage among the natives, 154—device to rescue himself and his comrade, 164—escape, 165.
- Institute of France, proceedings of, between 5th August and 16th September 1816, 205—*vi*pre fer de lance, id.—Egyptian cubit, id.

Index.

- Intelligence* in Science, Literature, and the Arts, 84-172-264-348-436-522.
- Iron*, new use of, for paving streets in London, 439.
- Journal* of Science and the Arts, No. III., character of, 177.
- Junius* identified with Sir Philip Francis, 348—ascertained to be Hugh Boyd, 524.
- Kentucky*, schools and colleges in, 289-300.
- Koster's* travels in Brazil, 487—becomes a planter, 502.
- Larissa*, vast quantity of the verde-antico marble found at, 44.
- Lavellee's* history of the French factions, 213—character and qualifications as an author, 214.
- Letters* from Virginia, 238-418.
- Machinery*, the effects of on labour, 60.
- Magdalena*, curious river of, described, 511.
- Marathon*, plain of, described, 39.
- Maryland*, schools and colleges in, 289-298.
- Massachusetts*, colleges in, 291.
- Maury*, the abbé, character of, 217.
- Medicine*, state of in America, 111—composition of, id.—history of, 112—list of American authors in, 125-6—teachers and schools of, in the United States, 126—character of the profession of, 130.
- Meta*, M. P. Faxar's account of, 198.
- Methuon's* new theory of crystallization, 180.
- Mineralogy*, review of Cleaveland's, 301.
- Minerva*, temple of, despoiled, 32.
- Miracles*, Hume's argument against, inconclusively answered by Mr. Ogilvie, 25—proved to be absurd, 25-28.
- Mirbel's* views of vegetable nature, 183.
- M'Leod*, Sermons of, reviewed, 485.
- Monticelli's* description of the eruption of Vesuvius in 1813, 177.
- Moss*, a new, allied to the genus splachnum, Mr. Hooker's account of, 196.
- Necessary Connexion*, meaning of the phrase, 18.
- New-England*, schools in, 286.
- New-Hampshire*, colleges in, 295.
- New-Jersey*, schools and colleges in, 287-296.
- Newman's* instrument to measure a ship's way, described, 190—blow-pipe, 194, note.
- New-York*, schools and colleges in, 287-296.
- Niger*, question of its termination discussed, 331.
- Nootka*, Three years at, 141—village of, 147-8.
- Nootkians*, government of, 148-9—religion, 150-3—marriages, 153—affability to one another, 155—mode of warfare, 156—slaves, 157—peculiarities of dress, 158-60—architecture, 160—food, 161—language, 162.
- Novels*, Ogilvie's Essay on, p. 29—writers generally young and inexperienced, 30—in general more dull than immoral, 31.
- Ogilvie's Philosophical Essays*—Essay II, 1—its design similar to that of Locke's, id.—imprecision in the use of philosophical language, 2—implied scepticism of his language, 3—definition of human knowledge, 4—false, 4-5—founded on Hume's doctrine of cause and effect, 9—his method of accounting for our belief, that the future will resemble the past, erroneous, 19—conclusions from his reasoning as to the existence of God, and of miracles, 22—illogical, 23, 25—Essay III. modern abuse of moral fiction in the shape of novels, 29—declamatory, rather than argumentative, id.—vitiated by his notions about cause and effect,

Index.

- id.*—general opinion of himself and his book, 31—verbal delinquencies, 32.
- Palestine*, Airs of, Pierpont's, character of, 248.
- Park*, Dr. on the varieties of sensation, 177.
- Parthenon*, description of the figures in, 34—composed of Pintelican marble, 35.
- Penn*, John, biography of, 257.
- Pennsylvania*, schools and college in, 287-297.
- Pierpont's* Airs of Palestine, 245---character of his poetry, 248.
- Pilgrimage* to the Holy Land, doubts of its being Lord Byron's, 397---opinion of, 398---extracts from, 399.
- Plants*, larger and more luxuriant at the equator than at the poles, 183---at the base than at the top of mountains, 185---how affected by light, heat, and moisture, 184.
- Poetic Mirror*, opinion of and extracts from, 430.
- Poets*, the metaphysical, 245---the semi-metaphysical, id. et 252.
- Poetry*, semi-metaphysical, exemplifications of, 248-51.
- Political* economy, conversations on, 60.
- Pox*, Cow, the properties of discovered, and described by Dr. Jenner, 49-52.
- Pydna*, tumulus in memory of the battle of, 45.
- Quadrant*, the reflecting, Godfrey and Hadley's claims to the invention of, discussed, 281.
- Quantity*, Day's definition of, objectionable; 449---impossible quantities should be systematically treated of, 456---demonstration of the principle, that when real and impossible quantities occur in the same equation, those which are real and those which are impossible, on opposite sides of the equation, are respectively equal, 457.
- Raffles'*, T. S.'s account of Java and Japan, 206.
- Rede*, L. S. biography of, 258.
- Reid*, Dr.'s, mistake about the nature of Hume's philosophy, 6---one of his arguments against it proves too much, id. note---use of the word instinctive in certain cases, censured, 18---excused, id. See Turgot.
- Review* of Continental journals of science, 199.
- Rhode Island*, colleges in, 293.
- Riley*, captain's, narrative of his wreck on the coast of Africa, and sufferings among the Arabs, authentic, 314---description of the Zahabrah, 322---of Arabic life, 223---schools, 225---journey across the desert, arrival at Mogadore, and return to America, 306-331.
- Robespierre*, character of, 219---conduct on the famous 9 Thermidor, 220---detention and death of, 222.
- Romeyn*, sermons of, reviewed, 445.
- Royal Society* of London, proceedings of, 207---of Edinburgh, proceedings of, id.
- Sandwich Islands*, Campbell's description of, 188---promising state of, 189.
- Saving Banks*, tracts on, 76---origin of, 77---and history, id.---abuses of, 78---intention of, id.---their great merit, simplicity, 79---Edinburgh bank, the best, id.---progress of, 81---benefits of, twofold, 83.
- Sciences*, classification of. See Woodward.
- different aspect of, as presented by the English and Continental writers, 455, note.
- Scott*, Dr., on the arts of India, 187---nitromuriatic acid, his substitute for mercury in various diseases, id.---his account of the Indian instruments for the removal of the crystalline lens, id.---suggests that the late introduction of Arabic digits into Europe proves that Greece could not have been so well acquainted with Arabia as is commonly imagined, 188.

Index.

- Scotch Vocal Poetry*, 167---collected in a volume by Mr. Campbell, id.---its identity with that of the Irish, Welsh, and Scandinavian, 168---labour of collecting, 168---examples of, 169-72.
- Scott*, Walter, poetry of parodied, 431.
- Sensation*, Dr. Park on the varieties of, 177.
- Sermons*, American, number of, 482---characteristics of our principal preachers, 482-484.
- Sidi Hamet's* journeyings in Africa, 334---veracity of, examined, 333---description of Tombuctoo, 339---of Wassanah, 342.
- Southey*, Robert, biography of, 258.
- Steam-Boats*, how to prevent the boilers on board of, from bursting, 475.
 ----- when invented, 382.
- Summer* of 1816, an essay to account for the coldness of, 400.
- Sunda* islands and Japan, T. S. Raffle's account of, 206---antiquity of the former, id.---how the people of the latter differ from the Chinese, id.
- Tanagra*, scite of, ascertained, 39.
- Taylor*, Jeremy's story about persecution, found, as he says, in the Jews' books, 392.
- Tea* of Bogota, account of, 191---originally discovered by Dr. Mutis, id.
- Tempe*, Valley of, 44.
- Tennessee*, schools and colleges in, 289-300.
- Thebes*, description of, 39---antiquities of, 40.
- Tempest*, a fragment, opinion of, 399.
- Therma*, tumulus in, memorable of the battle of Pydna, 45.
- Thessalonica*, account of, 46.
- Tides*, Bennett's new theory of, 231---why higher in narrow than in broad seas, 236.
- Tiryns*, cyclopean structure of the walls of, 36.
- Tombuctoo*, description of, 339.
- Trophonius*, adytum of, 41.
- Turgot*, his doctrine concerning the principle of our reasoning from past to future, 17---adopted by Reid, and enforced by Stewart, id.---approved, id.
- United States*, how the varieties of climate and soil of affect the human constitution, 113-115---national vice, intemperance, 116---diseases in the various parts of, and the mode of treating, 116-24.
 ----- state of education in, 285---free-schools in, 290---female education in, id.
- Vaccine Inoculation*, discovery of, 49---superiority of, to the variolus, 52---far less mortal, 53---less infectious, 55---less loathsome, id.---rapidity of the propagation of, 54---makes its way slowly in England, id.---caution to be used in, id. note---testimonies in favour of, 56.
- Vaccinna*, Dr. Jenner's Temple of, described, 57-8.
- Variolous Inoculation*, its mortality, 53---infectious nature and loathsomeness, 55.
- Vases, terra cotta*, at Argos, 36---intention of, id.
- Vastey*, baron de's, reflections on a letter of Mazeret, opinion of, and extracts from, 410.
- Vergniaux*, character of, as a speaker, 219.
- Vermont*, colleges in, 295.
- Vesuvius*, eruption of in 1813, 177---appearance afterwards, 179.
- Virginia*, letters from, 233---first settlement of, id.---land of, how taken up, 241---manners of the people in, 242---warm spring, 418---hot spring, 420---sulphur spring, 424.
 ----- schools and colleges in, 289-299.

Index.

- Wadsworth*, characteristics of his school of poetry, 432-8---poetry of, caricatured, 432-7.
- Walker*, Adam, biography of, 259.
- Wassanah*, description of, 342.
- Waterhouse*, Dr., the Jenner of America, 54.
- Walker's* South American, character of, 504.
- Watt*, James, F. R. S., biography of, 260.
- Weems*, Mason L., an author, pedlar, and preacher, 389---garbled edition of Dr. Franklin's Essays and Life, id.
- Wine*, Von Soemmering's new mode of improving, 198.
- Woodward's Classification of the Sciences*, 89---peculiarities as an author, 90-1---indiscriminate notice of every person and thing relating to his work, 92---singularities of punctuation, 93---object twofold; first, to give an account of former classifications, and, secondly, a development of his own, id.---method of classifying the sciences expounded and objected to, in some particulars, 94-8---suggested improvements of his classification, 99-103---his Table, 104---his Table improved, 105---key to the improved Table, 106---his undertaking equally philosophical with that of Linnaeus, 107---but not so arduous, 109---difficulties arising from the indefiniteness of mental philosophy, 108---not urgently called for, 110---or likely to be generally adopted, 111---general opinion of the book and its author, id.
- Works*, number of, published on the European continent between July and September 1816, 208.
- Wolcott*, John, M. D., biography of, 260.
- Wright*, Mrs., furnishes Dr. Franklin with secret information, 386, note.
- Zaharah*, the African, described, 322---erroneous opinions concerning, id.---similarity to the sand-hills of Carolina and Georgia, 347.

DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, to wit:

BE IT REMEMBERED, That on the 27th day of February, in the forty-first year of the independence of the United States of America, A. D. 1817, MOSES THOMAS, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

The Analectic Magazine.

In conformity to the act of Congress of the United States entitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned." And also to the act, entitled, "An act supplementary to an act entitled "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned, and extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."

DAVID CALDWELL,
Clerk of the District of Pennsylvania.